To Prospective Pool Owners,

When we decided to add a pool to our home in Georgetown, most of the pool contractors we talked to didn't want to tackle a challenging design, and encouraged us to adopt one of their Cookie-cutter plans to more easily fit our sloped backyard. John Pack was interested in making the plan work the way we wanted to, and the result is a beautiful accomplishment that fit our budget and our site. The workmanship and attention to detail were important to John and his team throughout the project, and the finished project is a stunning addition to our home...I invite you to ask John for photos or a tour of the pool to see for yourself.

Regards,
